

THE 10-MINUTE-A-WEEK TOOL THAT'S MAKING A DRAMATIC DIFFERENCE IN UTAH'S STEM CLASSROOMS

Helping you reach your STEM PD goals

Edivate is a professional learning platform that delivers a highly personalized learning experience for all of your educators. It's the only resource proven by independent research to actually work.* And it was created right here in Utah by School Improvement Network.

Three ways Edivate supports your STEM PD goals

1. Gives teachers targeted resources based on their individual needs:

---

  - Thousands of award-winning PD videos featuring the most talented teachers from around the country demonstrating classroom best practices
  - Content from leading experts such as Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Robert Marzano, Jay McTighe, Harry Wong, Rick Smith, and many more
  - Hundreds of ready-to-use lesson plans
  - Instruction in every grade and subject covering today's most important PD topics, including classroom management, differentiation, teaching strategies, how to stimulate learning and thinking, project-based learning, technology in the classroom, and many more
2. Provides you with tools that simplify PD management:

  - Recommend PD resources to teachers
  - Track teacher progress, so you know how and when to provide support
  - Create topic-specific course catalogs for teachers
  - More easily build and manage a system-wide PD program
  - Access and analyze teacher data
  - Produce custom reports for compliance requirements

3. Edivate comes with a comprehensive implementation support offering that no other provider comes close to matching:
